Trillion. His Most Bangerous Opponent, Falls, and Jockey Rowan Hurt - Mc-Kee Wise the October Hurdle Mendens and May Be Matched to Race Midgley. The second and last day of the New York Steeplechase Association's meeting drew a large growd to Morris Park yesterday afternoon, the Four-mile Steeplechase Handicap for a purse of $1,200 and the October Hurdle Handicap of $1,000 being the special features of an attractive card. The balance of the events on the programme filled so well that every event was a horse race. The sure-footed Duke of Abercorn won the steeplechase very cleverly, setting such a pace from the fall of the flag that none of his opponents could live with him. Although he had 168 pounds in the saddle he was never headed throughout and Veitch was pulling him to a standstill at the finish. The October Hurdle Handicap was won by McKee, the second choice, after quite s struggle with Phoebus, the latter being none too well ridden in the last sixteenth of a mile by

Of the eight entries named over night for the four-mile steeplechase Tidman, Rinaldo, Olindo, and Maudite were withdrawn and Spot was added. Duke of Abercorn was the favorite at odds on, but there was a very strong play on W. C. Hayes's gelding Trillion, the son of King Ernest going from 5 to 1 to 3 to 1 under the weight of money sent into the ring. It was 4 to Decaped, 15 to 1 Glenfallon, and 20 to 1 Spot. The Duke was conceding Trillion twenty-one pounds, and some of the best judges at the course thought that the latter should win at weights, particularly as the favorite is disadvantage over the long and trying course. For over three miles Duke of Abercorn, Triilion, and Decapod ran in close company, the former always in the lead, taking his jumps in his stride and rating along with that long, sweeping gait which carries him so swiftly over the ground with such little effort. Trillion is a small and should be a handy horse; but he was rank yesterday, and Rowan, who rode him, made the fatal mistake of swinging him at his made the fatal mistake of swinging him at his jump at the top of the hill. The little chest-nut gelding took off badly, pecked when he landed, and, turning a somersault, crashed into Rowan and left him bleeding and insensible upon the ground. After that the Duke of Abercorn was never hurried and he won with Veltch sitting still and the crowd shouting to him: "Pull him to a walk!" Decapod was a poor second, and old Glenfallon, who broke down after the first mile was passed, hobbled home in time to secure the $150 which went to the third horse. Spot boiled at the end of two miles and a half, and Wilson, breaking a stirrup, made no further effort to get him over stirrup, made no further effort to get him over the course.

Rowan was picked up, insensible still, and conveyed to the jockeys' quarters in the starter's wagon. He was examined by the race track physician, who said that the rider had sustained a fracture of one rib, and that the broken bone had punctured a lung. Rowan was taken to the Fordham Hospital in the evening.

McKee, the top weight for the October Hurdle Handicap, was not considered capable of giving sixteen pounds and a beating to Phobus, and Mr. Smith's gelding was a slight favorite over the Tremont star gazer in the speculation. San Joaquin and St. Luke were each held at 4 to 1, while it was 50 to 1 against Harry Payne Whitney's Pilferer. Brazil let Phusbus take the track at the start, and McKee was the only one of the field able to get near him, St. Luke having no speed and Pilferer turning a somerasult at the end of a mile and a half. The race was between KcKee and Phobus all the way through the last three-quarters of a mile, and there was some crowding at the head of the homestretch, which caused McKee to swerve toward the outer fence. Both jockers were riding at the last hurdle, which the horses took simultaneously, but to the astonishment of the talent Brazil rave up the ghost very easily on Phobus once the fence was topped, and McKee won by two lengths.

Midgley was the favorite for the second race.

talent Brazil mave up the ghost very easily on Phosbus once the fonce was topped, and McKee won by two lengths.

Midgley was the favorite for the second race, a hurdle handleap at a mile and a half; but that speedy gelding Flushing, with a 10-pound call in weights, sprinted away in the van as usual, and Slack, riding him with excellent judgment, managed to get home a neck and shoulders before McDonald's geiding, on whom Mara rode a splendid finish. April fool, well played, and a real good horse yesterday, beat Red Cloud a head for third money. The time for the mile and a half, 2:47, is 3½ seconds better than the best previous time over the course, the record being made Oct. 23, 1895, by San Joaquin, who carried only 135 pounds, as against 187 on Flushing yesterday. After the race there was some talk of a match between Midgley and McKee, and such a race may be arranged to be run next week as an extra event in the programme of the Westchester Racing Association.

That sterling good filly Divide won the third race, a high-weight handleap for all ages at a mile, giving Doggett 24 bounds and Trayline 7 pounds and a beating. Doggett was the evenmoney favorite, Eloroy being second choice at 254 to 1 and 3 to 1 against Divide. Divide and Trayline are two-year-olds, and they were in the thick of the fight from the start, Doggett being the only ene of the field able to keep them company. All three were aligned a sixteenth of a mile from home, and it took all of Taral's skill and jockeyship to get Divide home a length company. All three were aligned a sixteenth of a mile from home, and it took all of Teral's skill and jockeyship to get Divide home a length to the good. Trayline, in a hard drive, beat Doggett half a length for second money. Divide abould be one of the very best fillies out next year over a distance of ground, her mile in 1:44, with 124 pounds in the saddle, marking a really excellent performance.

should be one of the very best fillies out next year over a distance of ground, her mile in 1:44, with 1:24 pounds in the saddle, marking a really excellent performance.

The Kensico Stabie's filly Takanaese and P. J. Dwyer's colt Passover were equal favorites for the fourth race, a selling event for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs. They had the race between them from the start, and the filly finally vanquished the colt by half a length in the fast time of 1:97. Rollins was third, a short head before Billall, While at the post Rifler threw Jockey Bergen, and, leading the feuce, defied capture for twenty minutes. He was withdrawn from the race.

The owners of the Stockwell Stable announced yesterday that they will sell at Morris Park, on Oct. 129, their entire stable of thoroughbreds, combrising one three-year-old, five two-year-olds, and nine yearlings. Among the two-year-olds are the high-class stake candidates Challenger, by Martenhurst; Xmas, by Candelmas, and Poetess, by The Bard. The nine yearlings are very fashionably bred, and some of them have been tried highly. Challenger is considered by many one of the best two-year-olds in training, and as he is undoubtedly a stayer and well engaged in the three-year-old stakes he should command a high price.

BACING LAW DECISION. Court of Appeals Upbelds the Percy-Gray

ALBANY, Oct. 21 .- The Court of Appeals today handed down a decision touching the con-attutionality of the Percy-Gray Racing law. The court does not pass on the main point in the racing law, which allows racing for purses and prizes. The decision affirms with costs the order of the lower court in the case of the People ex. rel. Edward Weaver, appellant, against City Warden John Van De Carr of New York city.

Warden John Van De Carr of New York city. This was an appeal from an order of the Appellate Division which affirmed an order of Special Term dismissing the writ of habeas corpus and remanding Weaver for trial.

Weaver was held in New York city on a commitment which sets forth that he was indicted for violating section 351 of the Penal Code, better known as the section prohibiting poolselling and bookmaking. It was urged that the statute was unconstitutional, and that by reason thereof the relator was illegally held, being held for violating an unconstitutional law. Judge Martin writes the opinion, in which all concur.

A careful examination of the law, he says, falls to show any provision authorizing gambling or poolselling. In conclusion, he says:

"We think it cannot be fairly said that the provisions of this statute are in conflict with any of the provisions of the Constitution, and hence it should be upheld."

SUGGESTED BOOM IN BILLIARDS. Maurice Baly Willing to Put Up the Money if the Stars Will Play.

Maurice Daly hopes to see professional billiards boom after election is over, and he thinks that the thing to set the gentleman's game agoing finely is to have a series of tournaments with first-class talent as the attraction. He announced yesterday that he is willing to donate a prize purse of $2,000 for a tourney of the stars in this city, and to add more cash if tourna-ments are held elsewhere. This offer is even more liberal than the one made last January, which brought about the "Big Three" contests in this city, Chicago, and Boston at the new eighteen-inch balk-line billiards.

Daly believes that it would be practical to try this winter a project that he has long advocated, namely, the holding of tournaments in all the big cities of the country in which the stars would be brought in to battle with the champlons of the different States, conceding to the latter odds that would give them a chance of winning if they played in their best form. Daly's idea is that a long series of such games in the various States, arranged with the finan-cial cooperation of leading roomkeepers, would beom billiards throughout America.

"I have long believed," Daly said, "that tournaments in which the State champions took part would be a paying venture. It has never been tried, but if the local roomkeepers in the different large cities were to contribute a pro rata share to the prize purses they would be bound to have a degree of personal interest in the success of the tournament that would insure their working industriously to secure a good attendance. I know from experience that the more good billiards amateurs see, the greater is their interest in the game. Good professional billiards inspire the amateurs to make an effort to improve their own play. The more people were drawn to the tournament games, therefore, the greater would be the benefit reaped from the tournaments by both the roomkeepers and the amateurs.

"As far as a tournament in New York city is concerned, I am willing to put up a purse of $2,000 for the cracks. They would be free to choose their own style of game, either balk-line or cushion carrooms. If the latter were chosen I myself would enter on even terms with any of the other players and take my chance of coming out on top of the heap. All I want, however, is to see billiards boom. Things have been too dull in professional circles and we must wake up to keep in the swim."

Frank Ives is just as anxious as Daly that "I have long believed," Daly said, "that heep in the swim."

Frank Ives is just as anxious as Daly that tournaments shall be held. He is ready to enter, as soon as other entries can be arranged. He is to become a roomkeeper himself in December.

doubtful if the men will play any ball on the other

It was learned on good authority yesterday that the League magnates will, among other things, discipline Tebeau and O'Connor of the Clevelands for the recent brutal assault they committed on a newspaper writer. Tebeau's trouble in Louisville, which caused such a muddle among the magnater last summer, when the League directors illegally fined him $200, will be brought up, and it is thought that, in view of this latest escapade, things will go nird with the Cleveland captain. O'Connor has been in toad odor before and is asso slates for a severe dressing down. The indications are that both men will be heavily fined or suspended, in which event it will be interesting to watch F. De H. Robison, Presiden, of the Cleveland Ciup.

The F. Miller, announced in last week's Bulletin as connected with the irrequois. Wheelmen is not a member of that organization.

To the Editor of The Sun-Sir: I started from the Sus office, New York, Sunday morning at 5:48 in an attempt to break the record to Philadelphia and return. I crossed the Chambers Street Ferry to Jersey City and rode to East Orange, where a tandem annead by A. J. M. Edwards and W. H. Townsend ment me and took me to Plainfield and then to New Prunswirk. At Princeton I was met by R. J. Callow-hill of the Mercer Connty Wheelman and taken to Bristo, where Capt. Walters of the keystone Wheelman with the City Hall at 2:35 and arrived at the City Hall at 2:35 and arrived at the City Hall at 2:35 and arrived at the Secretary of the electrons. I left on my return trip at 2:35 and arrived at The Sex office at 18:37 that night, making my elapsed the 18 hours and 59 minutes, which I claim as the record and have forwarded my proofs of the same to the Secretary of the Century Road Club of America.

On Nov. I I am going to try for the single-trip record from the City Hall. New York, to the City Hall, Philadelphia, now claimed by Mr. C. S. Edwards of New York. Chas. A. Ready, color bearer E. O. Cyclers.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—A big scheme in the bicycle racing line is bing worked up in this city. It is a union of the local professional racing men, who are to combine to control all the bicycle race meets in this city in the future. These men, finding that big money has been made by the clubs and promoters during the past season on the abilities of the racing men, are determined to bring such moneymaking schemes to an end, and to gather in the dollars themselves after this. They intend to apply for the first sanction of the season next year, and also for sanctions all the Saturdsy afternoons and holidays, so as to shut out all the cuber big cities land thus control all the other big cities land thus control all the other big cities land thus control all the other big cities land

A meeting of the New York City Consulate of the L. A. W. was held at the Lenox Lyceum has night. There was a large number of prominent beyele riders in attendance, including many women. Speches were made by Dr. Ottolengul, J. B. Townsend, and J. W. Waiters. The ques-tion of putting asphalt pavements on certain atreets was discussed, and, while it was the sense of the meeting that new pavement is needed in certain sections of the city, the offi-cers of the association were very emphatic that the wheelmen should ask only for their rights and not for special privileges.

FOOTBALL.

Brooklyn Latin, 6; Belment, 4.

By far the most interesting game of football played at the Parade grounds, Prospect Park, for some time was that between the teams representing the Brooklyn Latin School and Rel nont Club, decided yesterday afternoon. There were fully 1,500 spectators present. Belmont won the toss and chose the north goal, Latin School taking the ball. Lutking kicked to the twenty-yard line. Eiwell got the ball and ran is the intention of the riders to go direct to London, and after resting a few days to visit Paris, where they will take up their headquarters. They intend staying abroad for several months, and will take part in all the big races throughout Europe. The Butler brothers intend to do considerable racing on the tandem. The three riders felt confident that they would make a good showing against the foreign cracks. All three riders have creditable records in this country. The American teams which visited France this year did not make out very well, but the Butler brothers, if they manage to ride as well abroad this fall as they did in this country, are assured of a number of victories.

The Racing Board of the L. A. W. is now winding up its investigations into the records of riders, and prominent amateurs are being disciplined with a strong hand. Lealie Tucker and F. A. Gately of Cortlandt have been transferred to the professional ranks. The bulietin of the Board is as follows:

PRINCETON, 48: VIRGINIA, 0.

PRINCETON, Oct. 21.—Princeton defeated the University of Virginia eleven on the 'varsity grounds this afternoon by the score of 48 to 0. A crowd of fully 6,000 persons witnessed the game. A mong those present were the delegates from foreign universities now attending the sesquicentennial celebration, and they will carry back witn them a good idea of America's great game. The Tigers played hard, swift football from the very start, and the Virginia players were totally incapable of withstanding the flerce onslaught of the Princeton backs. The features of the game were Haird's two goals from the field, one from the thirty and the other from the thirty-five yard line. Princeton started with the ball and Baird kicked to Morrison, who was downed where he stood by Cochran. Virginia tried the quarter-back trick, but Smith got the ball. Baird ran fifteen yards around Martin's end, and then Reiter went through the centre for the first touchdown after only two minutes' play. Morrison kicked off again to Smith, who ran ten yards. Virginia theh got the ball on Frinceton's 15-yard line for holding in the line. The visitors played desperately, but could not gain the necessary five yards, and liaird kicked the ball out of danger. This was the only time Princeton's scal was threatened. The rest of the game was all in Virginia's territory, and touchdown followed touchdown in close succession, the Tigers scoring almost at will. Princeton scored is points in the first half and 30 in the second. The line-up:

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—Pennsylvania beat Amberst 14 to 0 this afternoon, and in doing it gave the noorest exhibition of footbail of any Quaker team in years. Fumbling, off-side playling, and general indifference and listlessness marked Pennsylvania's play, and it was only toward the close of the second half that the team put any life into its game. Amherst is possibly one of the weakest teams Pennsylvania has met this season, yet in the first half Amherst kept the ball in Pennsylvania's territory nearly all the time, and once or twice had it dangerously near the Quakers' goal. It was not Amherst's play that enabled them to make such a good showing, but the rank fumbling and persistent off-side play of their opponents. Pennsylvania's play was so bad that it gave rise to the suspicion that the indifferent work was purposely acted so as not to give a line upon the team to some Lafayette men who were present studying the Quakers' game. For the first time in a month Hoyle, Pennsylvania's star end, played, and just before the call of time his injured leg was again hurt and he had to be carried from the field. The line-up follows:

Football Practice at Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, Oct. $1 .- Norman Cabot put on his foot ball clothes again this afternoon and joined the Har-vard football eleven, his knee having improved enough to allow him to play. There was a bost of coaches on the field this after There was a bost of coaches on the field this afternoon: Frank Hallowell, George Gray, Sears, Wrenn.
Enmons, Watera, Brewer, and Lewis all took a hand at coaching the players. The practice was the longest of the season, lasting an hour and a hair.
Capt, Wrighington slignity injured his knees and was forced to leave the practice, though his mishap is not serious enough to pretent him from playing on Saturday. The work was hard and fast, but very erratic. The spiendid work of Mills at tackle was the distinct feature, as it has been the entire week.
The men will take light practice to-morrow, leaving for Ithaca in the evening.

Richmond, Oct, 21.—As the result of injuries received in a football game last Friday, Charles Binylock, a youth 19 years old, died yesterday. In the game, which was played between two local teams, he was knocked down and half a coten players fell heavily upon him.

he was knocked down and haif a cozen players fell heavily upon him.

There is an unusual amount of interest in the game Yale will play with the Carliste Indian School team at Manharian Field on Saturday. The Indians have been practising steadily since their meeting with Princeton, and under the coaching of Vance McCormick and Hickok, the ea-Yale players, they have improved daily. They will arrive here to-morrow.

The football season at Bergen Point will open on Saturday, Oct. 24, when the New Jersey Athletic Ciub team will play their first home game. Their opponents will be the strong eleven from the Patific Athletic Club of Brooklyn. As both teams have been doing hard work since the beginning of the season, a fast game is assured. The ovai has been put in first-class shape, and every arrangement has been maile to accommodate the large crawd of spectators who will attend the game.

Eastox, Oct. 21.—Lafayette had hard practice to-day with the second eleven, waton showed up very strong and held the regulars time and again. The latter played a ragged game in Conco Davis's opinion, for he left them at it until play improved. Davis was himself badly injured in the first half while coaching. He fell and fractured his shoulder blade. He got a physician to dress the wound and went back in season to direct the second half, Barciay one of the half backs, injured his wrist and retired from the game. Coach Davis said to night that ex-Capt. Thorne of Yale positively would not play Saturday in the game with the University of Pennsylvania.
